Johnny Rivers joins Meadowtowne as an experienced real estate sales representative and looks forward to providing his clients with the same excellent service as years past. He has a passion for real estate and the drive to get the best results for his clients. A proven achiever, Johnny has won sales awards many times in his tenure with his previous employers in the medical sales field. What sets Johnny apart is his in depth knowledge of the Halton Hills area, which stems from being a lifetime resident and active community member in Georgetown. Johnny attributes his success in sales to his focus on his customers and their needs. Johnny is committed to staying current in the use of marketing tools and strategies for the best interest of his clients. Together with his wife Heather and their son David he resides in the Georgetown community.
