The results are in - Halton Hills has decided who will run the town for the next four years. With 10,108 votes, Rick Bonnette will be the mayor of Halton Hills for a fifth term. He won by a landslide, pulling in over 80 per cent of the votes. The Acton resident has been sitting on council for over 36 years, after being elected for the first time at the age of 26. "It's very humbling to say the least," said the mayor, adding that this was one of the first times he has ran against two other contenders for the position, Robert Gottardi and Jim Waldbusser. "Mr. Gottardi was an unknown," said the mayor, adding it was a particularly competitive election.

Incumbents faced steep criticism from new candidates calling for term limits how long a representative can sit on council. "We saw the signs, Do Not Re-elect Incumbents," said the mayor. See AFFORDABLE, page 11
