ACTON HIGH HOSTING CHARITY HAUNTED HOUSE ON OCT. 26

GRACIE MERCER

Halloween is fast approaching and Acton High School dares you to enter their annual charity haunted house.

The haunted house will be open to the public on Friday, Oct. 26 from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. Expect a frightening and fun experience you've never had before.

Admission is either three non-perishable food items or three dollars. Profits and food will be donated to the Acton Food Share.

Acton High's students have worked very hard to put together a thrilling and unforgettable night. The terrifying maze is something resembling a nightmare, where ghostly creatures and haunting exhibits await. From monsters to gore, the horrors that lurk inside will leave you trembling with fear. We guarantee that when it's over you'll want to do it all again.

Please be warned that the haunted house may include loud noises, fog machines and strobe lights, and is not recommended for young children. Enter if you dare.

Get set for some treats and scares with the Acton Business Improvement Area's Trick or Treat on Mill and Main.

Families and children are invited out to explore the downtown while getting in some early Halloween fun on Saturday Oct. 27 in downtown Acton.

Come dressed up, enjoy music and games, as well as treats from local businesses.

The children's "spooky bus" will also be on hand for a thrilling ride.

Mill Street East between Miller Street and Bower Street will be closed off to traffic, with parking available along Church Street and Bower Street.
