

HALTON HILLS LOVES A PARADE

Halton Hills residents bundled up Saturday to get into the holiday spirit with back-to-back Santa Claus parades in Acton and Georgetown. The Acton parade began in the afternoon, travelling from Queen Street and Acton Boulevard through town, and ending at Prospect Park. The parade's theme was Holiday Magic and the festive event included a food drive in partnership with the Acton Christmas Hamper program. The Georgetown parade followed in the evening, with a Vintage Christmas theme reminiscent of the 1950s and 1960s holiday celebrations. The route started at Guelph Street and Sinclair Avenue, then ran down Mill Street into the downtown area before ending at the fairgrounds. In the photos are: Santa and Mrs. Claus are the highlight of the show during the Acton Santa Claus Parade. The 1926 Bickle/Studebaker Fire Truck is a popular regular attraction during the Acton Santa Claus Parade. The Royal Canadian Air Cadets 197 Typhoon Squadron show their precision marching ability during the Acton Santa Claus Parade. Santa Claus and his reindeer are the star of the show at the Georgetown Santa Claus Parade. Molinaro Ranch brought out horses big and small to the delight of onlookers at the Acton Santa Claus Parade. Members of the Salvation Army Community Church blew bubbles to the crowd from their float in the Acton Santa Claus Parade. Always a crowd favourite, the Acton Citizens Band plays Christmas songs during the Acton Santa Claus Parade. A decorated antique truck supporting the Georgetown Cruise Night took part in the Georgetown Santa Claus Parade. Dancers from Center Stage School of the Arts performed for the crowd at the Georgetown Santa Claus Parade. The Halton Hills Firefighters Association entered a festively decorated float playing Christmas tunes in the Georgetown Santa Claus Parade
