

LIGHT UP THE HILLS ANNOUNCES FUNDRAISING DRAW WINNERS

Linda Armstrong will have plenty of things to do in the new year.

Armstrong was the winner of the local entertainment gift certificates in the Light Up the Hills draw. The package included a Georgetown Raiders family pass, theatre tickets for Georgetown Little Theatre and Globe Productions, cooking classes at the Real Canadian Superstore, John Elliott Theatre and Georgetown Choral Society tickets.

P. Wressell won four box seats for a Toronto Maple Leafs game and Claire Rothery won a sapphire and diamond bracelet from Salon Marcel.

Sharon Ford won the downtown restaurants gift certificates and Kim Sanders was the winner of a round of golf for four at Eagle Ridge Golf Club. Diane King won two tickets to a Leafs game.

Other winners included: Mary Robinson (JV Clothing gift cards); R. Helson (two oil changes from Canning Steering); Sarah Edwards (Downtown Spa gift card); Janet Foster (Glen Tavern gift card); Peter Smedema (LCBO gift card); Nicole Hart (The George gift card); Karen White (Club at North Halton dining card); Tracey Gould (Nikki's Pools gift card); Robert Kaczor (Georgetown Hospital Volunteer Association gift basket); Darryl Lambert (homemade Christmas dessert tray); Linda MacDonald (Kelsey's gift card).

... Lend Me Your Ears

CAN I HAVE A TRIAL PERIOD!

Members of the Association of Hearing Instrument Practitioners of Ontario recommend a 30 day time period in which they may return their hearing aid(s) if they are not completely satisfied. (There may be a service fee charged if an aid is returned). The criteria for satisfaction of the hearing aids is that you find them beneficial. You have the final word.
