Halton police are looking for two suspects following an alleged attempt to steal more than $200 worth of merchandise from a Georgetown store on Dec. 16.

At 7 p.m., a man and woman entered the Real Canadian Superstore at 171 Guelph St., and began filling a cart with various grocery items valued at $213.

Police allege when the cart was full, the pair pushed it outside without paying for the items.

They were stopped by security in the parking lot and placed under arrest.

Police allege the suspects then fled the area on foot, leaving the cart and groceries behind.

The man is described as black, in his late 20s, ap-
