Theodora (Dora) MacKinnon

With great sadness, the family of Theodora (Dora) MacKinnon born July 27th, 1937 share the news of her passing. Dora is survived by her children, Teresa (Bruce), Elizabeth (Wayne), Peter, David, and her grandchildren, Michelle, Carley, Teri-Anne, MacKenzie, Drew, Eric, Joel, and Dayen, and her great grandchildren, Noah, Benny, Mac and Violet. Dora is predeceased by her husband of 50 years, Neil (2012), her dear daughter Lynne (1978) and precious granddaughter Hunter (2011).

Since 2012, Dora suffered health challenges with heroic strength, refusing to accept help, and without complaint. She was always 'just fine'

Dora was a real estate professional for many years and serviced her many clients in Georgetown with diligence, honesty and integrity. Dora was talented and witty, she could act, and she so loved to dance, earning her the nickname Tina Turner, but it was universally agreed that she definitely should not sing. Her humorous notes to colleagues, family and friends will be cherished always.

Dora will be remembered for all of this and so much more. Her large extended family will gather for a celebration of her life at a later date and share their stories with love and laughter.

Dora is at rest, joined again with her loved ones. We are sure she is now in God's hands and doing just fine....

The MacKinnon Family

WATSON, Pamela Jean

July 18, 1963 - January 8, 2019

It is with profound sadness that we announce the sudden passing of Pam Watson on January 8th at the Queensway Carleton Hospital in Nepean, Ontario with her beloved partner Brent Clark by her side and in the thoughts and prayers of her family and friends. Pam is predeceased by her mother, Glenda (nee Crabbe), her father, Thomas Watson, and the light of her life, her brother, Sandy (Sandra). She is the cherished Auntie of Sandy and Sandra's children Alex, Taylor and Madison. She also loved to be called Auntie Pam by cousin Kate's children Kelsey and Carson. She will be sadly missed by all. Born in Montreal, Quebec, Pam spent most of her childhood and young adult life growing up in North Bay, Ontario and Georgetown, Ontario. Pam graduated from the Social Service Worker program at Fanshawe College in London, ON in 1985. Her clever wit and laughter always filled a room. Her reconnection with Brent Clark, her high school friend, was a new opportunity for Pam to walk through life together with the one she loved. Her heart would shine again as she moved to Kanata, Ontario to enjoy their future together. Cremation has taken place and Celebrations of Life will be held in North Bay, Ontario as well as Georgetown, Ontario with details to follow at a later date. Pam's final resting place will be in Innerkip, Ontario where she will be together again with her beloved family. Because of Pam's love of animals, in lieu of flowers, if you care to do so, a donation to her local Ottawa Humane Society - 245 W. Hunt Club Rd, Nepean, ON K2E 1A6. "Every head bowed, every heart filled with pain, silence echoed loudly as your beautiful wings were gained. And the tears did fall from the heavens like rain on the day that the Angels softly sang your name".

In Memoriam Verse Sample

Sample 24
Nothing can ever take away
The love a heart holds dear.
Fond memories linger every day,
Remembrance keeps him near.
