HELSON COLLECTION ON DISPLAY UNTIL MARCH 3

Throughout the coming month, Highlights of the Helson Collection will be on display at the Helson Gallery in Georgetown.

Among the artwork included in the display are paintings by members of the Group of Seven, noted historical artist Cornelius Krieghoff, as well as other prominent 19th-century Canadian and European artists.

The artwork is part of the collection donated to the Town of Halton Hills by Frederick Helson.

"The Halton Hills community lost a great benefactor with the passing of Fred Helson in 2018, but his generous gift of art will continue to inspire for generations to come," said

Mayor Rick Bonnette.

Highlights of the Helson Collection will be on display until March 3. Helson Gallery curator Judy Daley will share the stories behind the paintings, in an exhibition talk on Sunday, Feb. 24, from 2:30 to 3 p.m. The public is invited, and admission is free. The Helson Gallery is at 9 Church St. in Georgetown and is open Wednesdays, Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays from 1 to 5 p.m. and Thursdays from 1 to 8:30 p.m.
