HALTON HEALTHCARE SEEKING VOLUNTEERS AT ALL 3 HOSPITALS

Halton Healthcare is seeking new and enthusiastic volunteers to join each of its three community hospitals - Milton District, Oakville Trafalgar Memorial and Georgetown.

Halton Healthcare hospitals have a wide variety of volunteer roles available, including working directly with patients and visitors, and crucial behind-the-scenes support.

"Volunteers enhance the care of our patients, families and visitors, and are integral members of our health care teams," said Sharon Norris, vice president, human resources planning and organizational development. "We are grateful to this extraordinary group of people for all they do in living our values of compassion, accountability and respect every day."

Volunteers help to create a truly patient and family-centred care environment and experience. While specific roles may vary among hospitals, volunteers play a vital part in the following key areas: directing visitors, assisting at the bedside, preparing materials behind the scenes, running the gift shops and providing additional support to many other programs and initiatives.

Those interested should apply at halton-healthcare.on.ca/volunteer.
