Halton police are looking for two suspects following the theft of around $500 worth of clothing from a Halton Hills business on Feb. 14.

At around 5 p.m., a man and women entered the Polo Ralph Lauren store at Toronto Premium Outlets, 13850 Steeles Ave. W.

The woman selected five men's dress shirts.

Police allege that while the man kept watch, the woman removed security tags from the items and concealed them in her purse.

The pair then left the store.

They were seen getting into a white 2019 Ford Escape, which police said is Suspect photos.

Halton Regional Police

Halton Police say there have been more than a dozen instances of graffiti painted in downtown Georgetown since Feb. 16. Police are hoping the public can help in identifying the people responsible for the graffiti.

HALTON POLICE HOPING TO CURB GRAFFITI IN GEORGETOWN

Halton regional police is asking for the public's assistance to identify the suspects who have been painting graffiti in Georgetown.

Since Feb. 16 there have been at least a dozen incidents of graffiti being painted in highly visible areas of downtown Georgetown.

Five unique tags have been recognized based on their style and signature, each using a different colour and distinct style of writing. The five identifiable tags are:

- Deadx (normally painted in black)
- Dead (contains a scythe extending on the last letter)
- Jade (normally painted in black and written in cursive)
- RIOT (written in all capitals and normally painted in red)

- Baby

Police are encouraging members of the community to contact the police if they have any information about the people responsible for the graffiti.

Anyone with information can contact Const. Mike O'Halloran at michael.o'halloran@halton-police.ca or the on-duty staff sergeant at 905-878-5511, ext. 2410.

Tips can be submitted to Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-8477 or through www.haltoncrimestoppers.ca.
