Halton police are asking for the public's help in identifying a meat thief who has struck a Georgetown grocery store twice.

On Feb. 19 at 4:41 p.m., a man entered the Real Canadian Superstore at 171 Guelph St., and selected several packages of salmon from the seafood section.

The man then went to the meat department and selected several packages of beef and chicken.

Police say the man loaded up a shopping cart with these items then placed his coat overtop of them and left the store without paying.

The stolen property was valued at between $275 and $350.

On Feb. 28 at 6:29 p.m., the same man entered the same grocery store and selected $658 worth of the same items.

Police say the man again wheeled a cart loaded with these meat and seafood products out of the store, but this time was confronted by security.

When loss prevention attempted to put the shoplifter under arrest, police say he abandoned the cart and fled.

The man is described as white, in his early 30s, approximately five-foot-seven and 175-pounds.

He wore a dark coloured shirt/sweater, a light brown open coat, light coloured blue jeans, dark coloured shoes and a dark baseball cap worn backwards.

Anyone with information about these incidents is asked to contact Halton police at 905-825-4747 ext. 2351 or Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-TIPS (8477).
