ACTON FOOD DRIVE BRINGS IN MASSIVE AMOUNT FOR THOSE IN NEED

Local residents have once again answered the call for donations to the annual food drive in support of Acton Foodshare.

Over 9,300 pounds of non-perishable food were collected during the drive on Saturday morning, April 6 - up from 8,590 pounds in 2018. Approximately $700 in monetary donations were also received.

Many hands made for light work during the drive, with dozens of volunteers from the Acton Scouts and Girl Guide programs, along with Bethel's Cadets and Gems working together to collect food from every street in Acton.

Donations were sorted and weighed at Bethel Church, which serves as the home base for the drive every year.
