Memoriam

SCHOFFELMEER, Mientje
"Mieke"

February 13th, 1932 - April 7th, 2019
Born in Leewarden, Holland on February 13th, 1932. Mieke was the 7th of 8 children. She later went to meet Hans while they were together in a walking club.

They were married July 1st, 1953 and the following year moved to Canada, finally settling in Georgetown. The Lord blessed them with four children; Sylvia (Larry) Turner, Sharon (Bob) Lohnes, Scott Schoffelmeer (Melanie) and Stephanie (James) Mason. Mieke has 10 grandchildren who call her Oma / Omi and 17 great grandchildren who love their Oma.

Mieke passed peacefully, to be home with her Lord, 87 years young. Mieke and Hans were blessed to have 65 years together, serving their community by volunteering. Mieke found so much joy and delight knitting bears for the missions and praying earnestly for others. She was a true giver, who fought the good fight. A Funeral Service will be held at Maple Avenue Baptist Church, 177 Maple Avenue, Georgetown, on Saturday, April 13th, 2019 at 11:00 am. Internment is at Greenwood Cemetery, 100 King Street, Georgetown. Refreshments and fellowship to follow in the fellowship hall. To send expressions of sympathy, please visit

HILTS - In loving memory of my dear father, Henry Hiltz, who passed away April 10, 1972.

A special smile, a special face,
And in my heart a special place,
No words I speak can ever say
How much I miss you Dad everyday.

Sadly missed and always remembered by daughter, Helena.

In Loving Memory

MYERS, Gerald

Remembering your loved one...

Verse 4
*Loving and kind in all her ways,
Upright and just to the end of her days;
Sincere and true, in her heart and mind,
Beautiful memories, she left behind.*
