

INNOVATOR JOBST GELLERT CONTRIBUTIONS RECOGNIZED

BRYAN MYERS
bmyers@metroland.com

About 100 people gathered at Halton Hills Town Hall to honour a Georgetown innovator and community supporter.

Jobst Gellert was honoured posthumously with a plaque at the Gellert Community Centre.

Born in Germany in 1930, Gellert moved to Canada with his wife Waltraud in 1958. Shortly after settling in Georgetown, Gellert founded Mold-Masters in Toronto in 1963. By the early 1970s, Mold-Masters had relocated to 233 Armstrong Ave. in Georgetown.

In 2012, Gellert was inducted into the Plastics Hall of Fame in Orlando, Fla.

Mold-Masters was acquired by Milacron, an

Alexandra Fuller/Photo

Petra Gellert, daughter of Jobst Gellert, (left), Rick Bonnette, Mayor of Halton Hills, and Waltraud Gellert at the recognition ceremony at Halton Hills Town Hall on April 24.

American plastics machinery company in 2013.

The plaque notes that Gellert was a "community patron and industry pioneer."

"Jobst Gellert was a good man who believed in community and advocated and supported those initiatives that he felt were most important," Mayor Rick Bonnette said at the ceremony. "His contributions, in large part, made possible the Gellert Community Centre and the Mold-Masters SportsPlex facilities."

OLG/Photo

Alvaro Navarra of Limehouse won $50,000 in the March 30, LOTTO 6/49 Super Draw. Navarra purchased his ticket at Delrex Smoke and Gift in Georgetown.

$50,000 LOTTO 6/49 TICKET SOLD IN GEORGETOWN

BRYAN MYERS
bmyers@metroland.com

Limehouse's Alvaro Navarra is $50,000 richer.

Navarra won one of 50 guaranteed prize draws of $50,000 in the March 30 Lotto 6/49 Super Draw.

In addition to the 50 guaranteed prizes, the main jackpot was $1 million.

Won on March 30, which was national virtual vacation day, Navarra says he might be taking an actual vacation after his prize win.

Navarra purchased his winning ticket at Delrex Smoke and Gift (260 Guelph St.) in Georgetown.

Family Tree, Bangle Gift Set
$110 (Retail value $135)

True Uniqueness, Limited Edition Bangle
$100

Heart of Family, Bracelet Gift Set
$225 (Retail value $295)

THE MOST PERSONAL GIFT SETS

Hand-finished Mother's Day jewellery she will love

PANDORA

THE PANDORA STORE
BRAMALEA CITY CENTRE
905.792.8820

THE PANDORA STORE
MAPLEVIEW CENTRE
905.632.5400

THE PANDORA STORE
ERIN MILLS TOWN CENTRE
905.828.5902

THE PANDORA STORE
SQUARE ONE SHOPPING CENTRE
905.232.0661

Available starting April 18th, 2019. While supplies last. Valid at participating retailers. No substitutions. See associate for details.

© 2019 Pandora Jewelry, LLC • All rights reserved