A riveting photo of wolves play-fighting now adorns the wall of Rick Bonnette's office at Halton Hills Town Hall - the winner of this year's PhotoArt Mayor's Choice Award.

The image, entitled Conflict Resolution and shot by Oakville photographer Lori Metcalfe, captures a pack of wolves wrestling in Parc Omega, a safari park situated in Quebec. The local shutterbug explained that she used a fairly long telephoto lens and shot from a platform in the park to capture the wolves acting naturally.

5 REASONS TO HAVE CONFIDENCE IN OUR CARE

ADVERTISING FEATURE

One of the most challenging things about living with Alzheimer's is coping with the changes in abilities. Simple daily tasks become more and more difficult to accomplish. Safety becomes a concern. Knowing you or your loved one will be cared for by professionals certified in dementia and behaviour support is key.

CARE THAT IS PERSONALIZED

At Amica Georgetown care is personalized – according to each resident's unique needs and preferences. Memory Care residents get support with bathing, dressing, grooming, medication management and much more – all in privacy of their suite.

CARE THAT IS PROFESSIONAL

Each professionally trained staff member is highly qualified to ensure each Memory Care resident gets care that is knowledgeable, respectful and compassionate.

CARE THAT IS ALL-ENCOMPASSING

Not only is there a nurse and specialized support team on site 24/7 – we also ensure our Memory Care residents receive consistent care with scheduled appointments with a visiting physician, message therapist, physiotherapist, foot care, walker clinic and hearing clinic.

CARE THAT COMFORTS

We use individualized support tools such as My Life Story Book and My Life Story Box to help engage and comfort residents. Residents are also encouraged to participate in activities like music therapy and outings proven to bring feelings of purpose and belonging.

CARE THAT EVOLVES

With our professional staff providing the assistance and services you require at every stage of life, you don't have to worry about moving again if your care needs change.
