

LOCAL MEN RAISE THOUSANDS IN RIDE TO CONQUER CANCER

A group of local men has cycled hundreds of kilometres to raise almost $70,000 for a cause near and dear to their hearts.

Team Delta Bingo - comprised of Tom Steller, Cam Johnstone, Michael Joseph and Chris Beveridge - took part in the Enbridge Ride to Conquer Cancer on June 8 and 9, which benefits the Princess Margaret Cancer Centre. Georgetown resident

Johnstone has been participating for 11 years and rode this year in honour of his friend Darlene Jones, while Steller of Terra Cotta has been riding for a decade in memory of his late wife, Janet.

Actonian Joseph is a cancer survivor, and Beveridge said he rides to help support the Princess Margaret hospital in finding a cure.

Collectively, the men have raised more than $825,000 since they joined the Ride to Conquer Cancer.
