This journey may not all be smooth sailing, but together they discover hidden gems. Indicate your interest by signing up at reception.

Back by popular demand are the computer workshops. These are held on Wednesdays from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. The first class begins on Sept. 18. Each week features a different topic beginning with "Using the Internet." To hold a spot in the class you will need to sign up at reception.

Cultural Day at the centre is coming on Friday, Sept. 27. Three events are planned. From 9 to 10 a.m. you have an opportunity to practise or learn tai chi fan.

Whether you are new to or familiar with tai chi this drop-in demonstration is for you. From 1:30 to 3 p.m. we are offering a Chinese papercutting class.

This is a traditional style of papercutting practised in China since the sixth century AD. We are also offering a Chinese calligraphy class, a way to cultivate mental concentration and character.

We are going to try something new in September - an evening of drop-in cards on the last Saturday of the month, starting Sept. 28. Call the centre for details.

The week of Sept. 16 is the beginning of the fall active living classes. It is time to register. Some classes fill early while some are cancelled because those interested didn't let the office know.

Please note that the Hillsview Active Living Centre in Georgetown will be closed on Labour Day, Monday Sept. 2.
