Late-night service and an express trip during rush hour are among the changes coming to the local GO train line in September.

According to the public transit service, a variety of new trips are being added to the Kitchener line, which runs through Georgetown and Acton, to offer service later than what exists currently.

This includes:

- A new 9:53 p.m. trip from Union Station that will make all stops to Kitchener GO, arriving at 11:47 p.m.

- A new 10:53 p.m. trip from Union Station that will make all stops to Guelph Central GO, arriving at 12:22 a.m.

- An 8:57 p.m. trip from Kitchener GO that will make all stops to Union Station, arriving at 10:51 p.m.

LOCAL IMPACT: AN INCREASE IN TRAINS WILL GIVE LOCAL COMMUTERS AND THOSE TRAVELLING TO THE CITY FOR FUN MORE TRANSPORTATION OPTIONS

"You can come into the city for a game or a show and leave the car behind," notes the bulletin from GO.

Some existing trips are also being extended along the Kitchener line, including new all-stop trip options from Kitchener GO at 7:57 a.m. and 2:57 p.m., and from Union at 12:53 p.m.

In addition, the 6 p.m. trip from Union Station will get local commuters home an estimated 10 minutes sooner, as it will now run express to the Bramalea station.

The additional trips will be offered Monday to Friday starting in September, except on holidays.
