FEDERAL ELECTION

MEET OUR HALTON FEDERAL ELECTION CITIZEN JOURNALISTS

As part of Metroland Media's coverage of the Oct. 21 federal election, we invited local voters to act as our citizen journalists and provide their perspectives.

We chose two men and two women with varying backgrounds, including a senior citizen, a young voter, a life coach and an author. Below, please meet our citizen journalists and watch for their upcoming reports at Insidehalton.com and TheIFP.ca.

James Burchill, 50, Burlington

James Burchill is a Burlington-based entrepreneur, bestselling author and CEOwner of the JAMES MEDIA GROUP. He produces TV programs, online courses and events. When he's not creating, Burchill coaches others with the same goals. Eternally curious, James enjoys disrupting old systems and ways of thinking.

Siobhan Kukolic, 46, Oakville

Siobhan Kukolic is a storyteller at heart. The blogger recently published her first book, The Treasure You Seek, available on Amazon and Indigo. She started her career as a copywriter. While raising her kids, she volunteered as co-chair of her school council. Kukolic currently speaks at schools and corporations about embracing failure and having grit.

Gemma Patey, 19, Halton Hills

Gemma Patey is a second-year Carleton University student studying Global Politics. She calls both Georgetown and Ottawa her homes, and spends her free time working and volunteering in politics. Gemma aspires to work at the in-
