PLAQUES UNVEILED

Dalla Emam photos

The Alexander Homestead Designation plaques unveiling was held Wednesday, Sept. 4. Alexander House was built in 1854 by innkeeper William Alexander, while the first schoolhouse, Glen Williams, was built in 1837. Attending the event were (from left) property owners Chris and Rebecca Perkins, Mayor Rick Bonnette, Heritage Committee member Alison Walker, councillor Ted Brown who chairs the committee, and committee member John Rowe.

Were you a resident of an Ontario Training School?

If YES, A Class Action May Affect Your Rights.
Read This Notice Carefully.

- Were you a resident of an Ontario Training School during the years 1953-1984? If so, you may be a class member in the class action which has now been certified by the court. The lawsuit seeks money for class members.
- Class Members are automatically included in the class action, unless they take steps to exclude themselves (opt out) by June 4, 2020. If you want to stay in the class action, you don't need to do anything.
- If you opt out, you will not be part of the lawsuit and you will not be able to share in any money or any other benefit obtained for the class if the lawsuit is successful. But you will retain your right to sue the Province of Ontario as an individual regarding the issues in this case.
- Arrangements can be made for you to get free independent legal advice if you want it from Pro Bono Ontario: 1-855-255-7256.
- Please visit <http://kmlaw.ca/cases/ontario-training-schools/> to get more information about this class action and your rights, or contact us at trainingschoolsclassaction@kmlaw.ca or 1-866-860-9364. If you wish to provide it, it is useful for class counsel to have further information about your experiences in advancing the class action, and to be able to provide you with further updates about the case.
