HALTON VOICES CONCERNS ON GTA WEST HIGHWAY ROUTE

MELANIE HENNESSEY

As the province forges ahead with plans to build a major GTA West highway, Halton is holding the Ford government's feet to the fire with its serious concerns about the new thoroughfare.

Staff from the GTA West project team were on hand at the most recent regional council meeting, when Halton Hills councillors voiced their worries about the road that's expected to cut through the municipality.

The team presented details of a technically preferred route that's now been identified for the four to six-lane highway - with an adjacent transitway that would wind its way through southern Halton Hills and along the border with Milton.

The 170-metre-wide route alignment also calls for local interchanges at Winston Churchill Boulevard, south of 5 Sideroad at the Halton-Peel boundary, on Bovaird Drive just east of Norval and where highways 401 and 407
