KNOWN CARCINOGENS AND HARMFUL CHEMICALS: WHAT'S BREWING IN YOUR BACKYARD?

More than 1,040 facilities in Ontario reported to the province's Toxics Reduction Program, a voluntary reduction program that empowered you to see what toxins are used in the industrial facilities in your neighbourhood.

After a 45-day comment period earlier this year, the provincial government decided to scrap the program effective 2021 — tossing toxin reduction plans out with the bath water.
