

THIEVES STEAL ATM FROM GEORGETOWN BUSINESS IN EARLY MORNING BREAK-IN

Police are searching for three suspects after an early morning break and enter at a Georgetown convenience store.

In the early morning hours of Dec. 18, suspects smashed the glass front door of the Moore Park Convenience store (68 Main St. N.), and stole an ATM.

Police shared few details identifying the suspects.

The driver was wearing a grey jacket, dark pants, dark shoes and a facial covering.

Two passengers who entered the store were wearing dark sweaters, dark pants, dark shoes and facial coverings.

The suspected vehicle is a black GMC Sierra.

Police said that the investigation is ongoing.

Last week, assailants were unsuccessful in an attempt to steal an ATM from a gas station on Shelburne.

That attempt was potentially related to another ATM theft a week prior from the Orangeville Mall.

In 2014, thieves pried open the door of a neighbouring business and broke through the drywall into the Moore Park store in an attempt to steal cigarettes and the ATM. The thieves were unsuccessful.
