In my heart your memory lingers, always tender, fond and true;
there's not a day, dear mother, I do not think of you.

A sweet little flower, nipped in the bud, no grief or sorrow knew;
just came to earth to win our love and then to Heaven withdrew.
No stain was on her little heart, sin had not entered there;
and innocence slept sweetly on that pale white brow so fair.
She was too pure for this cold earth too beautiful to stay,
and so God's holy angel bore our darling one away.
