Acton BIA Vice-Chair Monica Galway welcomes Alex Hilson as the organization's new co-ordinator.

ACTON BIA NAMES NEW CO-ORDINATOR

There's now a familiar face at the helm of the Acton Business Improvement Area.

Local resident Alex Hilson is the new co-ordinator of the organization that oversees Acton's downtown core.

"I have worked with the Acton BIA through a variety of channels over time, both as a volunteer at BIA events and through my work as an arts and communications professional," said Hilson. "The well-being of downtown Acton and of the general community has been a major focus of mine over the last couple years. I've derived great satisfaction working with residents, local business owners, non-profits and government and am looking forward to growing and building upon those relationships in this new position."

Hilson brings a broad range of community experience to the role, including his work with the Acton Music Centre, ActonUp, the Acton Tanner and the Town of Halton Hills. He sits on the boards of the Acton Foodshare and Inspire Halton, and volunteers for PREVNet, Mediaeval Productions and the communications committee of the Anglican Church of Canada, among others.

He was chosen as one of three Canada 150 ambassadors for the Town of Halton Hills and has been recognized by the Association of Fundraising Professionals and the Halton Hills Cultural Roundtable for his volunteer work.

"The Acton BIA welcomes our new co-ordinator and is looking forward to new things downtown," said BIA vice-chair Monica Galway. "It's going to be a big year for us, and we're excited to get moving."
