

GDHS STUDENTS CONNECT WITH SENIORS AT INTERGENERATIONAL EVENT

Georgetown District High School (GDHS) arts students hosted an intergenerational celebration called "Elves of Arts" at Mountainview Residence.

The community event was created in order to give community members of all ages a venue to connect and celebrate together. The idea of the event is to combat loneliness at Christmas and promote intergenerational friendship.

Families, young children, youth, seniors and people from all walks of life joined together, sharing stories and laughter. The event featured singing, decorating cookies with chef Paul Mattina and creating Christmas ornaments and artwork.

Christoph Summer, owner of Mountainview Residence, and Nicole Ivanusevic, their life enrichment manager, did a wonderful job hosting and graciously offered their venue for GDHS students to use. The event was well attended and many wonderful community members came to support this students' initiative, including police officers and former military.

Everyone's time and energy was so much appreciated and the students would like to thank all who rallied together to make this festive evening possible. Thank you also to all community members who helped GDHS students collect presents for seniors in need from various community residences.

NEW RETAILERS COMING TO MARKETPLACE MALL

Bryan Myers/Torstar

Georgetown Marketplace is set to welcome three new businesses in February.

Breakfast House is a fast-growing chain of diners originally located in Innisfil. Since 2014, the restaurant has expanded from Ontario to Alberta. Stacked serves home-cooked breakfast and lunch dishes specializing in pancakes, waffles, and French toast.

Cob's Bread is an Australian bakery franchise established in 1980. With 700 locations, 130 of which are in Canada, Cob's specializes in in-house baked goods.

Griffin jewelry, based out of Richmond Hill, has several locations across Ontario. Founded in 1990, the family-owned jewelry design company is known for custom engagement rings and personalized jewelry.

Georgetown Marketplace is located at 280 Guelph St.
