It's been almost a year since the Georgetown branch of ServiceOntario closed its doors, forcing local residents to travel out of town for necessities like health card renewals and licence plate stickers.

Several of our readers have asked: will we ever see this government service office operating again in Halton Hills?

To find out more, we turned to Ministry of Government and Consumer Services spokesperson Harry Malhi, who indicated the answer is yes.

"We have full intention of keeping a ServiceOntario centre in Georgetown and are actively involved in finding an alternative service provider," he said.

A competitive process is un-
