

COVID-19

Updates & information from the Town of Halton Hills

Since the beginning of the COVID-19 crisis, the Town of Halton Hills has been there, taking action in a continuously changing environment.

- Mar. 13 : Recreational facilities and libraries closed to the public as precautionary measure
- Mar. 16 : Fire stations closed to public
- Mar. 17 : Halton Hills Hydro closed to public
- Mar. 18 : Town Hall closed to public
- Mar. 20 : COVID-19 Share the Care community support page launched on letstalkhaltonhills.ca
- Mar. 24 : Town declares State of Emergency
- Mar. 24 : Provincial government introduces 45 days of off-peak electricity pricing
- Mar. 25 : Tax relief measures introduced
- Mar. 27 : Town launches Economic Development Impact Survey for local business owners
- Mar. 30 : ActiVan service fees waived and safety measures and sanitation for riders increased
- Apr. 2 : Town announces enforcement of provincial Emergency Orders in partner with Halton Regional Police
- Apr. 2 : Municipal parking lot fees waived until further notice
- Apr. 6 : Recreation program cancellations and facility closures extended
- Apr. 6 : Town places part-time staff on declared emergency leave
- Apr. 6 : Town holds first Virtual Town Hall at 6:30 p.m.
- Apr. 7 : Park amenities fenced off and entrances/parking lots closed
- Apr. 9 : Economic Support and Recovery Task Force established to continue supporting local businesses
- Apr. 15 : ActiVan begins accepting temporary client applications by phone due to prolonged facility closures
- Apr. 16 : Town holds second Virtual Town Hall at 6 p.m.
- Apr. 16 : Community Support Action Team (CSAT) formed to assist community's most vulnerable residents