A committee has been formed to assist vulnerable residents during COVID-19.

In partnership with Halton Region, surrounding municipalities and local organizations, the Town of Halton Hills has established the Community Support Action Team to aid the community's most vulnerable. In an effort to assist Access Halton (311), the CSAT has developed a registry of resources available to residents who cannot access essential goods through other support networks; are self-isolating due to compromised immune status; are financially insecure, or are experiencing mental health challenges due to isolation.

"The CSAT is a terrific resource for our community and I'm pleased that we are able to help bridge the gap for residents to access services of other levels of government," Mayor Rick Bonnette said. "Connecting residents to agencies and organizations is fundamental to taking care of those in our community."

Residents in need are encouraged to contact Service Halton Hills at 905-873-2600 or email servicehh@haltonhills.ca.

"Our staff work with community supports on a daily basis," Brent Marshall, the town's chief administrative officer, said. "Staff has the ability to be flexible and adaptive and the establishment of the CSAT reflects current priorities."

Residents can also visit the Town's COVID-19 Share the Care page on letstalk-haltonhills.ca. For CSAT and updates regarding town operations, programs and services, residents can visit the Town of Halton Hills' COVID-19 webpage.
