My dear friends,

Please forgive me for leaving the party early, but you will no doubt understand why I had to go when I did. Whilst my passing may bring you tears of sorrow, please do not grieve for me, as now I am free from the pain at last. My Life has been filled with wonderful experiences and many happy times, which I shared with you over the years. In past months, I have experienced such an outpouring of love from you that has filled me with gratitude for having so many wonderful friends. I wished that I could have thanked you all personally, but it would take another lifetime.

Time may heal the broken-hearted, time may make the wound less sore;
but time will never stop the longing for the loved one gone before.

A wonderful person, friend and aide,
one who was better God never made;
a wonderful worker, so loyal and true,
one in a million – that person was you.

Always so good,
unselfish and kind,
none on this earth your equal I'll find.
Honourable and true in all your ways,
loving and faithful to the end of your days,
honest and liberal, ever upright,
just in your judgment, always right;
loved by your friends and all whom you knew,
one in a million, that person was you.
