OBITUARIES

MASON, Marilyn Patricia
June 27th, 2020

It is with great sadness that our family announces that Marilyn Patricia Mason passed away courageously and peacefully at home on June 27th, 2020. Marilyn is survived by her brother Barry Martin (Virginia) of Nanaimo B.C. Loving mother to Scott (Linnea), Bradley, David and Lisa (Amy). Devoted grandma to Ryan (Jules), Jarvis, Evelyn, and Oliver Paley-Mason. Marilyn was born in Toronto on St. Patrick's Day in 1932 to A.H.C. (Bun) and Vera Martin. Her parents were so thrilled they promptly entered her in the most beautiful baby contest at the Canadian National Exhibition. Alas, she finished second - a loss that haunted her for years. Marilyn graduated from Malvern Collegiate Institute in 1950. She went to work for Prudential Life of America. She also served as a reserve member of the Women's Division of the 2400 Aircraft Control and Warfare Squadron of the Royal Canadian Air Force based out of Toronto. In 1957 she left the company and began raising a family in Ottawa. In 1960 moved to "the Goose" in Labrador where she endured 6 brutal winters until the family moved to the more temperate climate of Georgetown in 1967. While raising 4 children Marilyn re-entered the workforce in 1973 with Mutual Life of Canada until her retirement in 1992. After retiring Marilyn was a long time volunteer at Georgetown Senior Centre (later Hillsideview Senior Centre) which culminated in a Provincial Senior of the Year award in 2010. She was a passionate sports fan and especially loved watching baseball, curling and tennis. One of her most fondest memories seeing old friends again at the Goose Bay reunion held in Ottawa in 1987. Marilyn enjoyed her retirement years spending time in her garden, feeding Chippy, and having coffee and breakfast dates with her friends. She loved a good meal and a good laugh. She relished solving crossword puzzles - right up until the end. As per her wishes, there will be no service. Cremation has taken place. Donations can be made in Marilyn's memory to the Upper Credit Humane Society. To send expressions of sympathy visit www.jonesfuneralhome.co

A wonderful person, friend and aide, one who was better God never made; a wonderful worker, so loyal and true, one in a million – that person was you.

IN MEMORIAM

BROWN, Brendan
December 18, 1939 -
July 1, 2015

In Loving Memory of a Dear Husband, Father and Poppy
Brendan Brown
It's been 5 years Dad
You'll never be forgotten
Every year we shed a tear
It's only because we love you
And wish you were still here
Love and miss you dearly Always and forever
in our hearts
Your wife Jane, daughters Donna, Tammy, Wanda and their families

Always so good,

unselfish and kind, none on this earth your equal I'll find.
Honourable and true in all your ways, loving and faithful to the end of your days, honest and liberal, ever upright, just in your judgment, always right;
loved by your friends and all whom you knew,
one in a million, that person was you.

We are sad within our memory, lonely are our hearts today; for the one we loved so dearly has forever been called away. We think of you in silence, no eye may see us weep; but many silent tears are shed when others are asleep.
