for entertainment, so it's great to offer fun and engaging options during summer vacation."

Due to the size of some of the activities, residents will need to speak to library staff when they arrive to pick up their items.

All reserved sets can be picked up on the main level in the Georgetown branch and in the Community Room at the Acton branch.

To ensure everyone's health and safety, returned activities will be quarantined for a period of 72 hours before being checked in and processed for another patron.

COMPUTER AND PRINTING SERVICES REOPEN AT LIBRARY

The Halton Hills Public Library is slowly increasing the services it can offer during the pandemic. The local facility can now provide computer and Internet use, along with printing services at both its Acton and Georgetown branches.

Residents can call the library to book a 45-minute appointment at 905-873-2681, with times slots available between 10 a.m. and 1 p.m.

"We are happy to once again offer these additional and vital services to the Halton Hills community," said chief librarian Geoff Cannon. "We look forward to welcoming the community back."

Upon arrival, visitors can check in at the main service desk and a staff member will assist with a computer and printer access. Normal printing charges are in effect. Library staff ask that everyone sanitize their hands upon entry, is mindful of physical distancing rules and pay attention to all signage and safety measures. If you're feeling unwell, please stay home.
