As the long process that followed CN Railway's proposal to build a logistics hub in north Halton is reaching its final stages, two grass-root groups initiated an online petition calling for the federal government to reject the project.

"We're at the stage now where the decision is to be made by Jonathan Wilkinson, the minister of environment and climate change," said Stacey Newman, of Milton Says No, of the urgency for all Halton residents and not just those in Milton to raise
