

OBITUARIES

AYLIFFE, James Edward "Ed"
August 24th, 2020

In his 67th year, passed away unexpectedly on Monday, August 24th, 2020 after a courageous battle with heart disease. Ed, beloved husband of Janette Gray, loving father of Alex (Brienne), Elizabeth (Chris), David (Savija), and cherished Papa of Sydney, Denika and Teija. Ed was predeceased by his parents Harold and Joyce Ayliffe, as well as his brother and best friend Dave Ayliffe. Lovingly remembered by sister-in-law Kathy, nieces Sharyn (Beckie), Becca (Colin), great nephew Xander and Janette's siblings Jodi (Lorenzo), Jayne (Cory), Russell (Kasia), their children and grandchildren. Ed was a computer engineer, working at CPI in Georgetown for over 45 years. He was also an accomplished pianist and pilot [flying out of the Brampton Flying Club for many years]. His interests later in life turned to model rail roads and playing board games with Sydney. He will be missed by all who knew him. Cremation has taken place and due to Covid the family will be holding a private ceremony. To send expressions of sympathy, share a memory or make a donation to the Sick Kids Foundation in honour of Ed, please visit www.jonesfuneralhome.co

A wonderful person,
friend and aide, one who was better
God never made.

Heavy are our hearts today,
memory brings you back once more.

BINGHAM, Margaret Ann
1939 - 2020

After being diagnosed with MDS just in June of this year, Margaret passed peacefully in the early morning of August 25, 2020 at Hospice Wellington with her loving daughter and son by her side. Survived by her two children; Dave Hillier (Linda Gray) of Orangeville and Diana Hillier of Guelph, and her sister and two brothers; Adah Gibbs (Bud) of Georgetown, Bill Bingham (Marge) of Georgetown, and Ron Bingham of Listowel. A loving grandmother, she will be sadly missed by her four grandsons and their families: Zach Tarzwell (Alison Knightley), Clinton Hillier (Janalyn), Jacob Legault, and Justin Legault. Her beautiful great grandson, Boden Dane Hillier, arrived at a perfect time in July to meet his special Great-Grandma Marg. Pre-deceased by her parents; William (Bill) Bingham and Annie Bingham (nee Wolf), and her younger brother Robert (Bob) Bingham. She will rest with her one and only true love and father of her children, Bob Hillier, in the Garden Columbarium at Greenwood Cemetery in Georgetown, Ontario. A private interment service will take place there on Friday, August 28th. Arrangements entrusted to the WALL-CUSTANCE FUNERAL HOME & CHAPEL, 519-822-0051 or wallcustance.com. Diana, David, and their families wish to thank everyone sincerely for their loving words of support and sentiment. Donations will be gratefully accepted for the wonderful Hospice Wellington in Guelph where she spent her final five days surrounded by laughter, love, care, and compassion.

COLLETT, Gail Diana

Mrs. Diana Gail Collett, age 82 years, passed away peacefully at home surrounded by loving family. Gail was born in Guelph, Ontario on May 12, 1938, the daughter of William and Clarice King. She grew up in Georgetown, Ontario before moving to Guelph to train at the Guelph General Hospital. As a Registered Nurse Gail worked at Humber Memorial Hospital and later at Georgetown General Hospital. A talented artist, she enjoyed painting with oils and water colours and during her time in Florida learned the art of painting with acrylics. Gail owned and operated Craft Shops in both Georgetown and Meadowvale and taught painting. She met the love of her life Bob Collett while living in Georgetown and the two were married on December 5, 1959. Together they raised four children and Gail was a dedicated mother to her two sons and two daughters. Their marriage saw them living in Georgetown, Merritt Island, Florida, and Port Elgin. She and Bob were very active in the communities where they lived and as President of the Kinettes in Georgetown, Gail helped with the petition to build the retirement home Kin Court. She will be lovingly remembered and dearly missed by her husband Robert, children Philip (Liana) Collett, Paul Collett, Diana (Deanna) Hannaford-Wilcox and Lesley Collett, grandchildren: Emma, Samantha, Sylvia, Jessica, Kristine, Scott, Taylor and Kennedy as well as by nieces, nephews and other relatives. She was predeceased by her parents and her sister Elizabeth. A virtual Celebration of Gail's life will be held at a later date. As expressions of sympathy memorials to the Canadian Diabetes Association would be appreciated.

IN MEMORIAM

WOOD, Wayne Winston
July 5, 1947 -
September 9, 1995

His memory is our keepsake
His hand I can not touch
There is a link,
death can not sever
His love that meant so much Fond memories linger everyday,
and in our hearts,
he will always stay.

Love always,
~ Barb and Family

KINGSHOTT, June
September 7, 2019

Mom
Your life was a blessing,
your memory a treasure...
You are loved beyond words and missed beyond measure.

Love Mary and John,
Brian and Sue and families

Pleasant in manner, patient in pain, our loss is your eternal gain.
