

AGE RANGE OF YOUTH TAXI SCRIP PROGRAM INCREASED

BRYAN MYERS

bmyers@metroland.com

The age limit for the Youth Taxi Scrip program has increased, allowing a larger portion of young people in Halton Hills to use the program.

"Until such time when we have a local transit system, it's important that we continue to leverage opportunities to support easy and affordable means to travel throughout the community," said Mayor Rick Bonnette.

The program provides registered riders between the ages of 13 and 24 a 40 per cent discount on regular taxi fares with participating companies. Previously, the age of eligibility was for youths up to age 19.

An ActiVan application for youth form must be completed in order to participate in the program.

Taxi scrip books are available for $12 with a face value of $20. Registered users may purchase up to four taxi scrip books per month from the following locations:

- Robert C Austin Operations Centre (by appointment)
- Mold-Masters Sport-Splex (by appointment)
- Georgetown Lotto Booth (inside Georgetown Marketplace)
- Halton Hills Library locations
- Town Hall - Service Halton Hills
- Links2Care (Acton)
- Acton Hillview Active Living Centre

■ LETTERS AND COMMENTARY

RETRACING TERRY'S HISTORIC STEPS

On Sept. 20, Georgetown hosted the 40th annual Terry Fox Run. The event was held entirely online and consisted of residents running, walking or rolling their own route, on their own time.

I myself chose to run the route Terry Fox took through Georgetown. I traced his steps past downtown, up by Georgetown District High School, along what was once the Dominion Seed House and eventually to the top of Norval Hill where Terry was presented a freshly baked lasagna from one Georgetown resident.

He devoured it entirely while she watched.

Terry was here in 1980, and the spirit of his Marathon of Hope has been with us in Georgetown ever since. This year, despite the lack of an actual event, over $10,000 was donated in support of the Terry Fox Foundation.

I would like to send my sincerest thanks to all who donated.

As we know, pandemic or not, cancer carries on, and so, too, does the fight to stop it.

Thank you Georgetown, and see you next year at the 41st Terry Fox Run.
