

Dear Neighbours

THE PAST FEW MONTHS have been a long rough road for all of us but we want you to know that the Foodstuffs team is on it with you.

Foodstuffs has remained open the entire time. We've been busy - serving customers online or in person 8 hours a day, 6 days a week the whole while. The front door remains locked to ensure good "traffic management".

With COVID-19 cases expected to tick upward in the weeks ahead we'd like remind you that for those who wish to return to curbside pickup we are still processing on-line "shopping lists" from the form on the opening page at Foodstuffs.ca.

From the bottom of that page it's a quick click to our Facebook, Twitter and Instagram feeds - where we'll keep you up-to-date.

For those who prefer the in-store experience we will gladly welcome shoppers as long as the COVID-19 protocols can be safely managed - for our customers and our employees.

We have wonderful things "in store" for you in the weeks ahead - delicious treats, the ingredients you're looking for, and gifts you'll love to give. We'll all make it festive somehow. Together.

We look forward to seeing you soon - whether it's at the door... or in the store:)

REMEMBRANCE DAY SERVICES SET, WITH RESTRICTIONS

Remembrance Day ceremonies have gone virtual throughout Halton region this year. The poppy campaign, which raises funds for veterans and their families, however, is underway with donation boxes in various local businesses and will run until Nov. 11.

This year, Remembrance Day ceremonies on Nov. 11 will be limited to attendance by veterans and their families in Acton, Georgetown and Glen Williams.

Officials suggest residents can still participate in honouring veterans by purchasing a poppy and observing two minutes of silence at 11 a.m.

A page on the letstalk-haltonhills.ca engagement platform will also be open
