PLANTING CAMPAIGN
FEATURES 1.1 MILLION
TULIPS HONOURING 1.1
MILLION CANADIANS

In the fall of 2019, the Dutch royal family marked the 2020 celebration of the 75th anniversary of the liberation of their country by thanking Canadians with a gift of 100,000 tulip bulbs - branded Liberation75 - to plant in the fall for spring blossoms in 2020. The gift of 100,000 tulip bulbs was matched by the National Capital Commission in Ottawa, where most of the bulbs were planted in the fall of 2019. More than 1,000 schools across Canada received Liberation75 tulips to plant around their school buildings. In the spring of 2020 the blossoms served as a reminder of the sacrifice made by Canadians 75 years ago. Each province's lieutenant governor was given 750 tulips to plant in provincial capitals, creating another tribute to the impact of Canadian soldiers on the liberation of the Netherlands. Canadians were encouraged to plant Liberation75 tulips that were sold in packages of 15 for $15 with $1 of that purchase price going to the Royal Canadian Legion, which represents more than 200,000 Canadians
