... Lend Me Your Ears

BUSINESS (NOT QUITE) AS USUAL..

Dear people of Halton Hills;

During these uncertain times, rest assured we remain open to serve you. We have adjusted services according to the guidance by Health Canada.

Please call for an appointment. We are not accepting walk ins at this time.

We handle every call on an individual basis to best handle each person's needs.

Social distancing in clinic with one appointment per time slot in waiting room.

If necessary, I offer mailbox drops as well!

Take care, be safe and know this will pass.

THINGS TO DO

FIVE THINGS TO KNOW ABOUT LIGHT UP THE HILLS

MELANIE HENNESSEY
mhennessey@metro-land.com

It's almost that time, when parks throughout Halton Hills are aglow with thousands of sparkly Christmas lights.

The pandemic can't stop Light up the Hills, which kicks off its 13th season next week. Here's everything you need to know about the festive displays:

1. The Christmas lights will shine from Dec. 1, 2020 to Jan. 3, 2021 in Georgetown's Dominion Gardens Park and Acton Sports Park. This year's new tree at the Shelagh Law Parkette in Glen Williams will be lit with flood lights. All of the displays are created and cared for by volunteers.

2. The traditional opening ceremonies — which usually bring hundreds of local residents together to watch the lights come on for the first time while enjoying treats and other festivities — are cancelled this year due to COVID-19 restrictions.

3. There will be three special memory trees covered in white lights in Dominion Gardens, where people can stop to reflect and remember their loved ones.

4. Tickets for the annual fundraising draw are on sale and available this weekend at the Holiday Market, being held in the downtown Georgetown Church Street parking lot on Saturday (Nov. 28) from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. The draw will be held on Dec. 14.

The elaborate Christmas lights and displays in Dominion Gardens Park will remain on until Jan. 3, 2021.

5. Since April, Light up the Hills' trees of hope have been shining bright to show appreciation for front-line workers. The current plan is to leave them lit 24-7 indefinitely.

Founding Ambassador

Pajama Drive

This month we rolled out our first ever "Pajama Drive" in support of Links2Care Halton Hills and we called on our town for help! Our community showed up in a BIG WAY, our goal for the Drive was to collect 100 pairs to donate to kids of all ages in our community - and we were BLOWN AWAY at the support we have received! Because of YOU, we are able to donate nearly 150 pairs of brand new pajamas to children in our community, who due to COVID or perhaps other reasons would have gone without this Christmas.

On a personal level, our Krause Morris Real Estate Family are committed to bringing Christmas into the homes of 40 local families by giving families Gift Cards purchased at local businesses.

Thank you Halton Hills for all that you have done and for all of your support!
