

LOCAL CHEF TO PREPARE CHRISTMAS DINNER FOR THOSE IN NEED

A Georgetown chef will spend Christmas Day cooking for more than 175 people who need it most.

Brady Davies, a personal chef based in Georgetown, has partnered with a number of local businesses to prepare individual turkey dinners.

"On Christmas Day, everyone involved will be down there lending a hand," Davies said.

Working out of Uncorked on Main for the day, Davies said staff from McMaster's Meat and Deli and Mill St. Cheese Market will also be contributing. Joining Davies in the kitchen for the day are Rod and Janelle Pasma.

"We're just going to go at it all day and pump out all these turkeys," he said.

While donations are welcome, Davies said the Christmas Day event had already raised enough money to cover the event, and any leftover money would be donated to the Georgetown Breadbasket.

"I know people who are hurting," Davies said about why he wanted to offer the Christmas Day meal. "I still have work, but a lot of people are hurt hard, especially at Christmas time."

A team of volunteers will deliver the meals.
