Nearing the anniversary of Martha's passing, I would like to take a moment to remember Martha.

A poem for Martha!

It started out part time
It grew and it grew
She had no idea
How well she would do
With lots of hard work
And a lot of good sense
She built a small empire
With trust & performance
Moving quickly through halls
Laden with files and such
She stopped every time
To answer so much
To meet her next call
She jumped in her car,
Eager to please
Whether near or far
Can I borrow your brain
Just one evening or two?
I wanted to know then
Everything that she knew

Offers and waivers
And Real Estate Law,
Negotiations and counters,
Executed without flaw
Honest and strong
Full of class and grace
Always a smile
In every case
She lead by example
A real estate whiz
No one was more respected
in the real estate biz
If you're ever in doubt
And want to be true
Just ask yourself next:
What would Martha do?
