OUTDOOR RINKS ADDED TO MEET DEMAND

More ice is on the way in Halton Hills. While rinks at Prospect Park and Georgetown Fairgrounds opened over the weekend, demand for ice was high.

At the Jan. 11 council meeting, Mayor Rick Bonnette announced two additional rinks were being constructed, but urged against skating on storm-water ponds.

"Stay off the storm water ponds," Bonnette said, as the ponds collect runoff including water from roadways. "Salt from roads results in an inconsistent ice thickness."

In December, an 11-year-old boy died after falling through the ice at a Milton pond.

Additional outdoor ice surfaces will open at the Acton Arena and Georgetown Fairgrounds.

A limit of 10 skaters on the ice at a time is in effect. Game play is also not permitted on the ice surfaces.
