Two Halton hospitals have launched a virtual new way of raising funds that benefits local residents in more ways than one.

The Georgetown and Oakville hospital foundations are now running separate monthly 50/50 lotteries to raise funds for essential hospital equipment.

The Georgetown lottery started in November with a guaranteed prize of $5,000 that will increase once gross sales hit $10,000. November's winner took home $6,805, while December's won $6,705.

Meanwhile, the Oakville lottery kicked off this month and is offering a guaranteed prize of $7,500.
