

THANKS TO ALL WHO'VE SUPPORTED ACTON FOODSHARE

The volunteers and clients of the Acton Food Share want to thank the citizens and companies that have been so creative this past year in collecting non-perishable food items and monetary donations.

The Acton FoodShare held its annual General Meeting (AGM) online on Jan. 19. The meeting was significant as it was our first AGM without Arlene and Norman Humphreys in many years.

Norman passed away during the summer while Arlene had to step away from active duties due to health issues around the same time.

The Acton FoodShare is Acton's food bank. It provides a place for those in need to come every Tuesday to get groceries. It began in 1991 through the efforts of a group of concerned citizens, led by Joan Waldie.

The new board includes Mike Albano as chair, Connie Umbrello, Alex Hilson, Sid Looyenga, Frances Morris, Walter Golden, Bernice Garrett, Betty Ann Kidd, Dave Dolliver and Pam Parkin.

There have been street collections, food drop-off challenges around town, food booths, craft sales and many other ideas from individuals who have organized events.

Also, thanks to the many generous people who have dropped off products at our building or made monetary donations. We appreciate that our shelves are full and that we are able to buy fresh produce and meat.

Thank you to all.

MIKE ALBANO, CHAIR
