HATE-MOTIVATED GRAFFITI DISCOVERED AT PARK

BRYAN MYERS
bmyers@metroland.com

Halton Police are investigating a report of hateful graffiti at a Georgetown park.

On March 17, police received information regarding hate motivated phrases written on a play structure at the John Street Park. Officers attended the scene and the incident remains under investigation.

This incident is the latest in a growing string of similar incidents in Halton Hills.

In December, police found racist graffiti at Silver Creek Public School. Prior to that incident, graffiti including a swastika was found at George Ken-
