JENNIFER HOLLOWAY

Sales Representative

The Krause Morris Real Estate Family is proud to announce that "here we grow again!" by welcoming our newest team member JENNIFER HOLLOWAY!

Jennifer has called Georgetown home for 38+ years and has local neighbourhood knowledge to select the best home for families and their needs. She has been involved in the community through church programs, volunteering in various roles within the hockey community, raising funds for local charities and volunteering her time and expertise to help local small businesses grow. You will first notice Jennifer's ability to connect with people is second to none and combining her zest for real estate and relationships is the perfect synergy. She has worked in several roles where her compassion and dedication to serve her community have been evident. Jennifer taught kindergarten for several years, was the Developing Director of an arts preschool program and most recently a Medical Assistant at a local Women's Health Clinic. Jennifer's enthusiasm, can-do attitude and caring nature will no doubt help guide all of her clients towards their dreams and real estate goals. In addition to her employment in the healthcare and education sectors, she also brings extensive technological knowledge to the table. Using technology to market, promote and make each purchase and sale seamless for her future clients. When she isn't working, Jennifer enjoys time with her two teenage sons Jaron and Jaedon, husband Geoff and dogs Hudson and Bentley. She is creative, loves baking, the gym, sewing and is always a listening ear for friends and family. Those of you who know her, trust her. Having the Krause Morris Team and their extensive experience that will compliment her already innate qualities, will be a dynamite combination!

Please help us in welcoming Jennifer to our Real Estate Family!
