CONGRATS TO REMEMBRANCE DAY CONTEST WINNERS

ACTON WELL REPRESENTED AT ZONE AND DISTRICT LEVEL, WRITES DAVID MALONEY

DAVID MALONEY
Column

Finally, the results of last year's literary and poster contest are in. The following students won at zone and district:

Autumn Barr — First at zone for junior essay and Third at district (St. Joseph)

Gabriel Danbrowski — Third at zone for junior poetry (St. Joseph)

Madelyn Vandermeer — First senior black-and-white poster at zone and second for same at district, second for essay at zone level, second for poetry at zone (Acton high)

Congratulations to all.

I have a friend who sends me lots of jokes, alerts and YouTube clips. Recently, he set me a clip of a patriotic song composed by 83-year-old Ellis Craig from Perth. The song is called "We are Canadian!" and I was so impressed I thought it would be nice to share it. I asked our webpage guru, Ryan Jenkins, to post it on our website, which he promptly did as well as share it on our other social media sites. If you have not seen it, check it out.

I read a lot, especially crime fiction or police procedural novels. Some of the books I read are by North American authors, but mostly British.

That is where I get into trouble with spelling the word "curb" (if referring to roadside). The British spell it "kerb." But Lynda wants me to spell it the North American way. So, I will pose the question. Have you got your tickets yet for the April 16 curbside pickup souvlaki dinner? Details are on our website. This program is not merely a fundraiser for the Legion but an effort to promote local businesses.

The executives have now served for two years and cannot be replaced until we can call a general meeting. My colleagues have been doing an excellent job, as have all the volunteers who have helped us and are still helping us keep the branch maintained.

Please check the webpage at legion197.com and, in addition, we will be posting information on Facebook.
