COUNCIL

NEARLY A THIRD OF TOWN STAFF ON SUNSHINE LIST

BRYAN MYERS
bmyers@metroland.com

The 2020 Sunshine List has been released, and the Town of Halton Hills now has almost 100 employees earning above $100,000.

The annual list names all public sector employees earning over $100,000 in Ontario.

In 2020, the Town of Halton had 98 employees who earned over the threshold, about a third of the Town's 314 full-time employees.

Those employees account for about 28 per cent of the Town's payroll based on a 2020 budget of $44,273,745.

Sunshine List members at the Town grew by nine, from 89 employees in 2019.

The top earner at the Town was CAO Brent Marshall, who earned $267,597.25, up slightly — $2,563.58 — from the previous year.

Marshall has been on leave since Aug. 24. There is no set date for his return.

Chris Mills, acting CAO, in Marshall's absence earned $218,251.86 in 2020, the second highest salary at the Town.

Mills is one of four employees to earn more than $200,000 in 2020 - the first year employees aside from the CAO earned about that amount.

Marshall and Mills are joined by Warren Harris, commissioner of recreation and parks (up from $189,358.08 in 2019), and John Linhardt, commissioner of planning and development (up from $181,468 in 2019).

Moya Leighton, the Town's treasurer and director of accounting, is the highest paid woman, at $169,497.91.

A third of employees on the list were women, earning an average salary of $123,297.93 annually in 2020, while men earned an average of $131,154.29.

Nearly as many employees on the list worked for the Halton Hills Fire Department, though the average salary for firefighters was $122,404.20.
