TRUSTEES OPPOSE PROVINCE'S ONLINE LEARNING PLAN

KATHY YANCHUS
kyanchus@metroland.com

A proposal under consideration by the province to permanently embed online learning in the education system, and to partner with the publicly funded educational network TVO to deliver the programming, is facing stiff opposition among education stakeholders across Ontario.

The plan would take the re-

Michael Wilson ran 55km from Toronto to Georgetown Saturday in honour of his father Craig (seen here joining him for last leg of journey), who has been diagnosed with terminal cancer. The event was a fundraiser for Oakville Trafalgar Memorial Hospital, where Craig receives treatment. More than $12,000 has been raised to date.
