MAN CHARGED WITH SEXUAL OFFENCES

BAMBANG SADEWO
bsadewo@metroland.com

A Halton Hills man faces charges in connection with alleged sexual offences involving three teenage girls.

Police say that on Monday (May 17) shortly before 2:30 p.m., three girls — all 13 — were sitting at the playground at Centennial Public School, 233 Delrex Blvd. in Georgetown, when they were approached by a man.

According to police, after speaking with the victims and learning that they were all in Grade 8, the man left the area, but came back not long after, and allegedly asked the teens to perform a sexual act on him.

When the teens refused, the man "offered to expose himself" to the victims, police allege. The girls then left the area and reported what had taken place.

Police attended the scene and located a man not far from the park. A knife was recovered.

A 29-year-old Georgetown man has been charged with three counts of invitation to sexual touching and possession of a weapon for a dangerous purpose.

The charges have not been proven in court.
