After months of staying at home, residents looking for something local to do can head to a variety of nearby farms for some tasty fun.

Here are five places in and around Halton where you can pick your own berries:

1. Andrews Farm Market & Winery, 9365 No. 10 Sideroad, Halton Hills: Strawberry picking is set to get underway for the season on June 12. Other types of berries will be available for picking in the coming months. Check andrewsscenicacres.com for updates.

2. Berry Acres, 11550 No.

15 Sideroad, Halton Hills: It's anticipated that strawberries will be ready to go starting June 14. Visitors are asked to call 905-702-7518 before coming to check the daily picking update message.

3. Stonehaven Farm Market, 7388 Guelph Line, Milton: Pick-your-own strawberry season is expected to run from mid-June to early July (exact date to be announced). The farm is using a first-come, first-served system this year for picking. For further details visit stonehavenfarms.com.

4. Uncle Scott's Farm, 6583 Walkers Line, Burlington: Strawberries are anticipated to be ready for picking around the Father's Day weekend. This year, pick-your-own peas will also be offered.

Call 905-319-3298 or visit Uncle Scott's Farm Facebook page at facebook.com/UncleScottsFarm for updates.

5. Downey's Strawberry and Apple Farm, 13682 Heart Lake Road, Caledon: Strawberry picking season is set to open on June 14, while raspberries will be ready to go around July 8. Further details can be found at downeysupick-farm.ca.

Poppy Campaign Committee Chair Comrade Ray Clarke (RCL Branch 120) presents a cheque for $5,000 to Sandra Taylor of the Georgetown Hospital Foundation, which also received $5,700 from Legion Command. The Poppy campaign also allowed for $4,000 donations to the two local cadet groups.

Supporting Local Businesses in Your Community

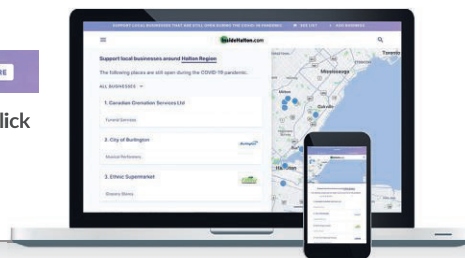

With shopping restrictions changing regularly to comply with the latest public health safety measures our communities need to be kept informed on which businesses are open and how they are ensuring a safe shopping experience.

To help our communities we have created an online business directory that features local businesses that are open, hours of operation and how customers can safely make purchases from the stores.
